ACCES TO LILLE BY PUBLIC TRANSPORT

By train:

There is a very good connection with most European cities by TGV or Eurostar. Both stations ("Lille Flandres" and "Lille Europe") are located close to the town centre (5 minutes by foot) and have connections with Paris, Brussels and London.

- Paris – Lille: 1 hour,
- Lille – Bruxelles: 38 minutes,
- Lille – London: under 2 hours.

There are also direct links by TGV to the Mediterranean and Brittany. The Nord-Pas de Calais region also has a dense regional express train network.

By plane:

Lille Airport is located 8 kilometres from the town centre. It has regular flights to national and international cities and plenty of charter flights. A shuttle provides links with Lille Europe Station.

There are few variants on how you can reach Lille by plane:

- 1/ Brussels airport and then by train (Gare du Midi) to Lille;
- 2/ Charleroi airport and then by shuttle to Lille;
- 2/ Paris airport and then by train to Lille;
- 3/ Lille-Lesquin airport and then by shuttle to Lille.
